McMahon Associates, Inc. Announces Promotions of Jason T. Adams, P.E., PTOE and Christopher K. Bauer, P.E., PTOE to Associates of the Firm

FORT WASHINGTON, PA, March 22, 2019 – McMahon Associates, Inc., a transportation engineering and planning firm, is pleased to announce the elevation of Jason T. Adams, P.E., PTOE and Christopher K. Bauer, P.E., PTOE to Associates of the firm. This designation affirms that Adams and Bauer are considered to be key members of McMahon, and a part of the next generation of the firm's top leadership.

The Board and Principals of McMahon view Associates as key contributors and partners in our present and future success, individuals who effectively advocate and lead company programs and policies, and who have the presence and leadership capabilities that inspire and instill confidence in our staff and clients. Associates' names are synonymous with McMahon Associates, and each of their names are proudly displayed on the letterhead as key members of the firm, as an indication that they are part of our next generation of top leadership.

Jason T. Adams, P.E., PTOE, is the General Manager of the Boston office for McMahon. Jason has more than 18 years of experience, all of them with McMahon, specializing in traffic engineering and transportation planning for government /public sector and commercial/private sector clients in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Maine. Throughout his career Jason has blended extensive experience leading comprehensive and complex transportation engineering and planning projects with additional experience in design, client management, permitting and cost estimating. In addition to his project responsibilities, Jason also manages our recently expanded office in the heart of Boston that has grown rapidly under his leadership.

Christopher K. Bauer, P.E., PTOE, is the General Manager of McMahon's Camp Hill office. For more than 20 years, Chris has developed a proven, and wide-ranging, expertise in project management and all aspects of transportation engineering, including aviation, rail, highway design, traffic engineering and transportation planning. He has successfully completed projects for the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, PennDOT, Port Authority of New York & New Jersey (PANYNJ), NYSDOT and other state agencies. Furthermore, his knowledge of local transportation issues and the transportation funding process has enabled him to serve and guide numerous municipalities through their responsibilities as a local project sponsor on state and federally funded projects. This is in addition to -serving the day-to-day traffic consulting needs of municipalities. Chris also has a wealth of private sector traffic consulting experience.

“We view Associates as ambassadors of the firm to the outside world, and as our next generation foundation who are key to our continued growth and success as a business,” said Joseph DeSantis, P.E., PTOE, President and CEO of McMahon Associates, Inc. “Jason and Chris have demonstrated proficient business acumen in our industry and have provided great leadership as evidenced by their effective performance on projects and in managing their offices. They are also recognized as industry champions among staff and peers, and are adept at building client enthusiasm for McMahon. For these, and many other achievements, it gives us great pleasure to announce the elevation of Jason and Chris to Associates of McMahon.”
