McMahon Associates, Inc. Promotes Matthew M. Kozsuch to the Title of Vice President and a Member of the Firm's Executive Committee

FORT WASHINGTON, PA, March 19, 2018 – McMahon Associates, Inc., a transportation engineering and planning firm, has promoted Matthew M. Kozsuch, P.E. to the title of Vice President and member of McMahon's firm-wide, Executive Committee which is comprised of ten people that work to lead the 200-person firm. In early 2017, Kozsuch's success elevated him to General Manager of the firm's Exton office, in addition to serving as the Regional Service Leader for ITS for the Mid-Atlantic region.

Matt joined McMahon in 1994 and has been responsible for managing engineering contracts for public agencies, local municipalities and private clientele. During his nearly 25 years with the firm, he has managed a multi-million dollar Traffic Signal and Safety Services contract with PennDOT District 6-0 since 2003, and has been instrumental in securing signals & ITS contracts with the PA Turnpike Commission and the City of Philadelphia. Kozsuch also provides his expertise to many of the firm's municipal and private sector clients on traffic signals and signal systems, and he is viewed regionally as a signals & ITS expert. Additionally, Matt successfully led McMahon's Camp Hill office from 2013 to 2016. Kozsuch is an active volunteer in several professional societies, routinely speaking at events and conferences, and he is also a Past President and Past Director of ITS Pennsylvania.

As General Manager of the Exton office, one of the firm's largest offices, Matt is responsible for direction and daily oversight of office operations and administrative functions, monitoring projects and workload, and acts as the office liaison to McMahon's senior leadership.

"We are very proud of Matt, and the leadership and technical prowess he has demonstrated to our clients, as well as to our staff and the firm's top leadership team, the Executive Committee," said Casey A. Moore, P.E., VP & Mid-Atlantic Regional Manager for McMahon. "He has earned this promotion to become a Vice President and Executive of the firm through his demonstrated actions, success, vision and business acumen. I am pleased and privileged to have Matt on this leadership team to take McMahon to the next level."

"It is an honor to be selected by the Board of Directors of McMahon to join the Executive Committee," said Matthew M. Kozsuch, P.E., VP & General Manager – Exton. "Our firm has a very bright future and I am privileged to be a part of this great team."
