H. Scott Russell, P.E. Rejoins McMahon Associates, Inc. as Senior Project Manager

FORT WASHINGTON, PA, August 27, 2019 – McMahon Associates, Inc., a transportation engineering and planning firm, is pleased to welcome the return of H. Scott Russell, P.E., as he rejoins McMahon as a Senior Project Manager. Scott will focus on expanding the firm’s presence in Central Pennsylvania for transportation engineering opportunities, specifically the Lancaster region, and he will be based out of the firm’s Camp Hill location.

In his engineering role, Scott has vast experience serving as the municipal engineer for East Cocalico Township, the Borough of Strasburg and the Borough of Denver, providing services that included roadway design, traffic engineering, drainage design, PennDOT highway occupancy permitting, traffic signal operations, capital project planning and budgeting, municipal ordinance updates, pavement design and management, and grant writing assistance.

Scott also has a strong background in Pennsylvania government operations, serving most recently as Township Manager for East Cocalico Township (10,400 residents), and Vice-Chairman of the Board of Supervisors for East Hempfield Township (24,000 residents) in Lancaster County. As Township Manager, he was directly responsible for the maintenance of the local township road system with an annual road and stormwater maintenance budget in excess of $600,000. Additionally, for East Hempfield, Scott has served on the Township’s Finance Committee, Admin Committee, MS4 Committee and Traffic Commission overseeing the Township’s road system of 118 miles. Scott also serves on the Board of Directors for the Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors (PSATS).

“We are pleased to have Scott rejoining the ranks at McMahon,” said Christopher Williams, P.E., Principal and Regional Manager – Mid-Atlantic. “His municipal government experience will provide additional insight as we work with current clients and develop new opportunities to work with municipalities in the Lancaster region.”

“We are seeing spectacular growth in Central Pennsylvania,” said Christopher Bauer, P.E., PTOE, General Manager – Camp Hill. “Having Scott’s first-hand knowledge of municipal management, and it’s associated challenges, will help us serve our clients more proactively and grow our base in this market.”
